Description

Is there anything Pam Grout cannot do - author of 15 books, three plays, a television series and two iPhone apps.

She also writes for People magazine, Cooking Light, and The Huffington Post... and has her travel blog.

"This book is beyond spectacular. It's Funny, Uplifting, delightful and profound." C Northrup M.D.

E-Squared contains nine experiments, each of which can be conducted with absolutely no money and very little time, that prove your thoughts create your reality, as consistent as Newton's laws of motion.
