Description

The final item is more likely to interest the kids than Dad... a pair of Puppy Design Window Covers. Decorated with a cute puppy splashed across the centre of each, they filter the harsh sun and give a little privacy too... but are not designed to be blackout shutters - so will not impede visibility. Dad can attach them to the inside of the back passenger windows for the kids!

Under $6 : Car Enthusiast Gift Pack

This gift pack comes complete with a gift bag - to carry all these goodies!
